

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

A Malaria Week Dialogue:

STRONG SURVEILLANCE SYSTEMS AND TIMELY REPORTING

World Health Organization

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

- Requesting participants to please keep the video and mic OFF
- The plenary part of the session will be recorded and shared on social media

OUR CHAIR FOR TODAY

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

Prof Tikki Pangestu
Board Chair, APLMA

OBJECTIVE OF TODAY'S DIALOGUE

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

The dialogue will:

- reflect on importance of strong surveillance systems and real time data during COVID-19 pandemic and for other infectious diseases;
- highlight gaps in current malaria surveillance and reporting systems and ways to improve them;
- discuss the policy process in making malaria a notifiable disease and identify stakeholders critical to the process and
- provide recommendations to improve surveillance in hard-to-reach communities.

Key points raised during this dialogue will be shared at the APLMA Senior Officials Meeting (SOM) on 11th Sep 2020

OUR EXPERTS FOR TODAY

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

Ms Laura Fisher
Adviser, Strategy and Planning- Indo Pacific
Centre for Health Security

Prof Gao Qi
Senior Professor, Jiangsu
Institute of Parasitic
Diseases, China

Dr Neeraj Dhingra
Director, National Vector
Borne Disease Control
Program, India

OUR BREAKOUT CHAIR

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

Dr Serene Joseph
Technical Officer
Neglected Tropical Diseases,
WHO Indonesia Country Office

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

QUESTION FOR THE BREAKOUT SESSION

What are some of the key strategies adopted by your country to improve surveillance and timely reporting of malaria and how has COVID-19 impacted it? What works?

WHAT IS GOING TO HAPPEN IN THE BREAKOUT SESSION

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

- All participants to be divided into approx. groups of 9-10 people randomly.
- In each group please select:
a facilitator (who also keeps an eye on the time) and a recorder (a person who captures the two key messages)
- Please discuss the breakout question in your group.
- Webcam and mic ON for all the participants
- 5 minutes before the end of the session please start summarizing & agree on two key messages.
- Once back in the plenary the chair will ask you to copy your two key messages into the plenary chat box.
- Enjoy the conversation.

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

SHARING THE RESULTS

- All recorders – please post your two key messages into the chat box.
- All participants please take note of the results

MALARIA WEEK 2020
INCLUSION. INTEGRATION. INNOVATION.

Thank you for joining us!

We look forward to your participation in the next few days